

South County Federation Public Safety Information And Volunteer Opportunities

[Updated: 2024-03]

Emergency Preparedness Information: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/emergency

- Fairfax Alerts: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/alerts
- Emergency Phone Numbers
- Ready Fairfax – Emergency planning (Preparedness Plans; Kits)
- Emergency Response Guide: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/emergencymanagement/cerg
 - This is a terrific reference to help individuals; families; neighborhoods; communities; organizations; and businesses be better prepared for a wide variety of disasters. The Guide identifies threats and presents strategies to improve preparedness; reduce disaster impact; and improve response. This could save a life!
- Animal Protection Police & Animal Shelter:
www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police/specializedunits/animalprotectionpolice

Public Safety Volunteer Opportunities:

Fairfax County has a number of established volunteer programs to promote and support public safety. Please see the links below to find out more about how you can get involved, learn how to be better prepared, and help make Fairfax County and its residents safer.

Community Emergency Response TEAM (CERT) – Local volunteers interested in improving neighborhood preparedness. CERT provides free training:

www.fairfaxcountycert.org

Medical Reserve Corps (MRC) – Volunteer Opportunities for both Medical and Non-Medical individuals:

www.fairfaxcounty.gov/health/medical-reserve-corps